How do I install the HP driver for the unused cards and the other driver? I used to be able to install the HP driver by directly pointing to the driver-vsphere.com webservice, but the interface for that has been changed. Any help would be appreciated. A: I found the answer. From the HP.com site: If the vSphere Client detects a host adapter that is not matched by an existing driver installation, the following steps are necessary: Navigate to VMware > Support. If you are prompted to select a product, select ESX Server. Select ESXi > Host Adapters > Install/Uninstall Host Adapters. Click + to select the host adapter(s) you want to install. Click Install. Follow the onscreen instructions. A: There was a new version of vSphere out a few days ago. I simply installed the new version and the new vsphere client and it worked. Q: 'UnicodeEncodeError' when querying SQLite database with Python When I try to query an SQLite database with Python, I get an UnicodeEncodeError. It worked fine before I add these two lines: self.execution_interval = float(self.config.get('EXECUTION_INTERVAL', '10')) self.i = 0 I'm storing my time of execution in the database, and my
