These are the conditions that keep us all safe... or not. Want to invest in these companies? It's not easy, but that's what I've done, and here's how I do it. The best way to invest in safe and ethical companies is to do it through index funds or ETFs. They're easy to buy, they generally don't cost more than a couple of dollars per month, and you're guaranteed to get returns that keep up with the market. If you're looking to get started, I've found Vanguard - and particularly their Total Stock Market fund - to be the best way to capture returns in the safe space. No company is 100% ethical, but most are in the safe zone where the vast majority of us live. And there's no better place to start than with the companies at the heart of our lives... 21 Things to Know Before Investing in 21 Safe and Ethical Companies Check out the 21 Things to Know Before Investing in Safe and Ethical Companies PDF (just $4.99) and learn: Why safe and ethical companies are the best place to invest Why the first thing you should do with a safety or ethical investment is list down the companies you'll invest in How to actually invest in 21 safe and ethical companies with Vanguard Visit Stockfeed, where I've posted links to all 21 companies.
