Adobe Creative Suite 5.5 Master Collection.International Festival of the Art of Archery International Festival of the Art of Archery (,) is an international festival in Polanica-Zdr3j in Poland. The festival is organized by Forest Service of the Hradec Kr3lov3 Region. The event is mainly dedicated to promotion of archery and hunting, but also encompasses other sport and entertainment activities. The event attracts about 50 000 visitors during the course of the festival. Since 2005 the festival takes place every year. Program Archery is one of the oldest modern sports, and since archery became popular only in the last century (or millennium) archers started to develop their art. The Festival of the Art of Archery consists of many activities: shooting competitions with 22 targets traditional archery - the "chase" game shooting range jousting, mounted archery free shooting game target shooting in practice with the use of balloons traditional archery archery contests - chahta-bagchata and naga-chaistra competitions exhibitions other games target shooting with the use of balloons Jousting Jousting is a medieval knightly combat sport, it is the direct predecessor of modern fencing. Jousting is a combat sport, which can be thought of as a combination of a fencing exercise and a wrestling contest. The joust is normally between two mounted knights on a horse, though in some cases the joust may be on foot, the pair traditionally wearing similar gear and competing with lances in hand. Jousting is a two-person event. It requires two people, called a joust and his opponent. The joust is the one who turns to face the other and lands his lance. The joust throws and hooks the lance with full force to its opponent's helmet, chest, or shoulder. Unlike other medieval
