Lackslustre Description: • Included in W8.1/W7/WVista/Windows7/Windows8/Windows8.1 Golden Sunset is a beautiful theme designed for those of you who like landscapes and sunrises in particular. The image used was made by Kargan Besides the amazing scenery depicted in the desktop wallpaper, Golden Sunset theme will change the color of your windows to one very similar to that of the golden sun. Golden Sunset Description: • Included in W7/W8.1 It has been a while since my last update, so here you go, a new one. On the way of something I designed months ago and kept it from myself (the details were in the package, but I just didn't wanted it to be public yet.. I think I was in the wrong mood then, haha). Even if it's a short update, I wanted to share this new desktop wallpaper with you. It's a small gif, but it's not ephemeral, it's actually movable. So you can move it around and leave it on your desktop, or take it wherever you want. And there's a little bit of awesomeness to it, so if you like to play with the new, keep going. I decided to make a quick gif from it, so you can enjoy and move it to wherever you want. And yeah, this is a long time coming. I really wanted to share it with you all, because I think this is something a lot of you might need... it's really nice to have an icon of the origin of something beautiful. And this is the Greening Package I mentioned in the previous post... And now let's talk about the wallpaper!
