Enter your email to subscribe: Main Page This is an Introduction to Android Penetration Testing Tutorial, where we will learn how to install and configure the ADB and IDS tools used to launch a cyber penetration test of an Android phone and tablet. Once installed, we will learn how to use ADB and IDS to unlock an Android phone or tablet remotely, and how to extract the contents of the Android phone or tablet. After this, we will learn how to use IDS and ADB to monitor a device to look for data and system changes. Also, we will learn how to use IDS and ADB to run a remote file access and information extraction in the Android device. We will learn how to use IDS to detect the presence of remote processes that run unsigned code. Finally, we will learn how to bypass the Verisign certificate pinning feature in Android 4.2.2 to extract sensitive information from an Android device. A comprehensive thermal imaging experience is coming to Dubai next month. A team of experts will be visiting the city to train and educate the public about the capabilities of the technology. The tour will include the Middle East, Africa and the Americas, and will run from January 28th to February 2nd.

The American Service Center of Avigilon will be giving an open lecture entitled "Heat 101: A Complete Overview of Thermal Imaging" on February 1st from 12 - 1.30pm at the Jumeirah Beach Hotel. The tour will also feature a dinner with presentations and demonstrations from various thermal imaging manufacturers as well as a display of fire detection technology. The accompanying sponsorship fee will be AED 1099 per person. To book a place, call 800-665-9160 The tour will also include a day and night show at the Dubai International Financial Centre (DIFC) where the public can get a sneak peak of Avigilon's newest thermal imaging camera, the HS70, being showcased in a maze of pathways and an underground car park. The show runs daily from 9.00-21.00. The tour is sponsored by Avigilon and the DIFC. For more information contact the American Service Center at 800-665-9160 If you have an iPhone, iPod or iPad, you can now download the new free "Tactical Detective" application. This new application allows you to search for incidents on a map. It will even list the
