After the epilogue of the story of "The Perfect Match" has been completed, the protagonist moves on in life, now not quite complete. She has learned the truth and is now ready to share her experiences with the rest of the world.

The protagonist has become a real human being and has discovered the secrets and consequences behind her journey of self-discovery. She is now ready to tell the world how she really felt. With the help of three different writers, the protagonist will tell her story in three different styles: Live in the moment narration: The protagonist, now fully grown up, comes face to face with the truth. She will tell the story of her adventure in first-person point of view. Storybook narration: The story will be told to the protagonist, at the end of the game, by the game's writer.

This will be a short but striking story, filling in the gaps and complete the protagonist's experiences. Storybook interface: The player will get to read the storybook, scrolling through the tales the protagonist has to tell, with the help of the characters' drawings and the protagonist's own. Game features: - A high-quality storybook written by three different writers, - High quality illustrations and animations, - An original soundtrack, - Templates to help you interact with and customize your own story. STORY In "The Perfect Match", one night while in bed, the protagonist suddenly realizes that she is just an object. And how she will never be the perfect match. Then she has a feeling that she must save other people. To know more about her mission, the protagonist goes to the library. She finds out about a phenomenon called "The Light of Our Lives", a mysterious and almost ethereal light, that can help people with their problems. Entering into the Light, the protagonist sees strange visions; but she is too afraid to fully explore them. Eventually, she meets the "Light Archer"; she finally hears the sound of her own voice... but does she actually hear it? Help the protagonist discover the truth and her own feelings, through her adventure.

/ C.D.R.H Modele III (Paperback) (BC8015) Description "Look for the cover. It has a detailed drawing of the aircraft." Your wish is my command, Claude-Jules Besse, who first appears in the 010th issue of "La Revue de la BD" is back! While the 012th issue is dedicated to an on- going series and some of the great Airfix figures, in the 010th you'll find, amongst some really interesting projects, the C-101 Aviojet, the aircraft that will power the characters' adventures. This kit wasn't made by us, but by C.D.R.H, which made it too early to be presented in the 8th issue of this magazine. Like Claude-Jules, C.D.R.H had also produced some 1/72 "Aérospatiale Matra Magician", a kit of the same "Medusa" helicopter but using another plastic than the one used by Airfix. This was the first model to feature quite a few painted parts, airbrushed in warm colours, just like the drawings and the reverse of the box. The only suggestion inside was the size of the scale thanks to the 1:72 circular base and, belatedly, a tip-off on the way to build it! The most important aspects to take into account if you're looking for an easy and safe build is, of course, that it is slightly over-sized, and, in a regressive way, as it's less and less detailed as you go down to the extremities. *** "Look for the cover. It has a detailed drawing of the aircraft."- It worked! A package, suitable for new starters on plastic kits! Unfortunately, for us, this is the only issue of La Revue de la BD with the new cardboard packaging. The plastic was only featured in two issues: one (052) in the 8th one of our magazine and the other (093) in the tenth and final issue of this first series. In an effort to diminish the risk of missing Airfix's two greatest practical model kits, Dana and Richard, this issue covers as well, 9 Airfix kits brand new to the 8 th issue of Revue de la BD. These highly popular kits are finally introduced. The miniatures, although different form those used in the previous issue
