Get ready for intense, multiplayer, physics-based dodgeball action in MindSweeper, an unique one-on-one game where every dodge is a strategic move that will decide who wins. Simple gameplay and intuitive controls make MindSweeper the perfect game for any player, regardless of age or experience. To celebrate the launch of the game, we thought it would be fun to challenge the other Rocket League teams to a real dodgeball match. So we've built a track! Test Me features Slushii's iconic vocals with a lively synth vibe over a hard EDM beat. The track will be available on other music packs in the future. Features: •Easy gameplay that will appeal to all players •12+ minutes full-length track •Music pack including the new Test Me by Slushii & Dion Timmer •Packs include new music and community missions to play online* Your friends have also enjoyed What's New in Version 1.0.2 Previously-stored user progress will be correctly loaded when switching to a non-online game. General Updated new user tutorial. Fixed an issue where the player's car was sometimes visible as floating when another player was in front of them. Fixed an issue where some users received "feature not available" message when attempting to use certain features. Fixed an issue where the option to delete a save would not appear in the option menu. Fixed an issue where the player was unable to select the game type in the starting screen. Gameplay Added new small size, medium size, and large size cheese fields. Fixed an issue where a player was able to reach base even when touching the wall. Fixed an issue where the score was not correctly saved for online matches in some cases. Fixed an issue where a player would get stuck before the end of the match when the last player touches the touchpad. Fixed an issue where the player would not receive feedback when hitting the ball too hard. Fixed an issue where the car would perform an aggressive boost or flip instantly when running into a wall. Miscellaneous Removed the "Missing game data" message. Fixed an issue where multiplayer teams that were created using custom party names were not saved after making edits to that configuration. Fixed an issue where multiplayer teams with a custom party name could be made publicly visible in the "Create a game"

What's new:

name's Vince and let's try to answer the questions I usually get asked while internet trolling. Q: What is your favourite car? As a child, I was drawn to the main attraction of a used car show, and would pick out each car I saw while never having particular concentration in mind. Having been an automotive student prior to entering the world of software engineering, I'll admit my interest in engine tech has waned but it still fascinates me when guys like Kit Gionete in Turin or Cristiano Monteiro in Brazil are fighting the FR2.5 or 1R to replicate their magic. But for me, it always came back to the first thing I saw: The Jaguar E Type. It's a beautiful piece of automotive art. Q: Do you really think you could sell a $10,000 sports coupe to an average Joe with his wife and kids? Jeb Stuart "Jeb was unapologetic in his statement about purchasing a beautiful 1000-hp Jaguar XKE, one of the finest sports cars built in recent years. Tell me sir, that there is not not one woman amongst our American country's citizens that would appreciate the well-tested 600-hp power plant and massive acceleration of this Brougham boulevard vehicle" vehicle. This is why I will never knock a parent that buys their child a Macbook, the same for someone that buys a Harley-Davidson without their own means of transportation. Hell, I don't even have a model I drive. I just enjoy the ride of a 205hp BMW S1000R when it comes available. But this #$11 has a 6-speed sequential transmission and acts as a roadster when fitted with a motor that makes 460hp. Q: I don't have any friends, can I call you? Yes you can, but I don't necessarily have an answer to that question. Generally, I don't socialise much and the guy that barely said more than a sentence in regards to either of us wasn't that cool to begin with. I'm not the easiest guy to get along with, never have been and probably will never be. The only thing I can do is offer of service. You may not have any friends but to me, I'm your friend. Q: I'm not gay, am I?

"StrikeSwarm Online" is a PVP (Player-vs-Player) game made for PC, Mac, Linux, Android and IOS for battle royale. Players have three types of guns to choose from: The shotgun is mainly for AoE (area of effect) damage, great for killing flying enemies like combat helicopters and fighter planes, and it can be used to disrupt the flow of the enemy team. The sniper has some of the longest range and easy shot capability in battle royale, with a big emphasis on headshot damage. The assault rifle is for short range and fast shooting, but it can deal some AoE damage. Players in "StrikeSwarm Online" have to fight with a restricted budget, however, each player is equipped with a vest, which they have to use to survive in battle royale. The money is collected as a reward of a kill or to buy some items in the shop, so players must fight and fight and fight. Players in strike swarm online will also have to face a leaderboard to see who has the best score in ranking. Better scores in ranking means better placement at the top of the leaderboard and will also increase the number of loot boxes you can earn when you pick up the game. In "StrikeSwarm Online" you have to use the four keys when you want to use your jump in order to be able to reach your opponents. Play your role carefully and strategically in battle royale. All weapons that you used in the game can be added to your inventory. The ammo is replenished during a respawn but the weapon is reset to the lowest ammo in your inventory. So, how's the game? We're excited to share with you our vision of "StrikeSwarm Online", where players use their skill and wits to navigate the sea of human players in battle royale. ● Features ■ PVP (Player-vs-Player) The first step is about playing! PVP (Player-vs-Player) is the core gameplay that we focused on first. The game is played in four-versus-four mode, but there are also many other modes included. It's a game where you are fighting others to win the match and get the most points. It's a sandbox game where you and the other players are the self-chosen players who have to
