(Script started .Bucs poised to get desperate at Atlanta Braves ATLANTA (AP) — They're desperate right now. Yes, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers can say that, in good conscience, having earned a trip to the playoffs. They enter the decisive NFC South showdown in Atlanta on Sunday with 12 consecutive losses against division foes and have lost their last 10 in the series. At 4-11 they're tied for last in the NFC South, and it's just the second time in nine seasons that Tampa Bay has failed to make it to the postseason. "We've got to figure out a way to get the second season right," coach Dirk Koetter said. The Bucs (4-11) have a lot to fix if they're to make another run and get healthy in time for the playoffs. Players whose health has long been in question are able to play, but it's a good problem to have having allowed players to miss time with injuries — running back Doug Martin had both an ankle and knee surgery — and suspensions. They're also short on production, with quarterback Jameis Winston and receiver Mike Evans the only players with more than 30 catches, with about five games to go. Tampa Bay is riding a 12-game losing streak that dates to 2016. "We haven't been winning, and we have to pick it up and make something happen," said linebacker Lavonte David, who has moved from middle linebacker to strong-side linebacker. Maybe the most unexpected news from Sunday was the Patriots' two-point conversion of the overtime period going awry. Sure, it was a huge play, but it was rare that the Patriots have scored a two-point conversion. The last to occur was in last year�
