In a world full of deception, it can be difficult to distinguish truth from lies. With sea ice and glaciers melting, nations turn on one another, and the one thing they all agree on – everyone is more interested in their own future than that of the world’s. When an art restorer arrives in town, she makes an unusual request: she wants you to take a look at her paintings. Only you will be able to tell if she’s telling the truth. Her life – and yours – may depend on it. Dive into a gorgeous, artistic world as you uncover the truth. Just be careful – deception is a deadly art in this thrilling Hidden Object Puzzle Adventure game. A dazzling game for all ages from Toca Boca! During the winter break in the fantastic town of Echo Creek, your parents are out of the house! Reluctantly, you invite your three new friends to join you on a sled ride to the snow-covered mountains. The snow is deep and the trails are unfamiliar, so you use your portable GPS system to guide you through the park. A dazzling wintry adventure awaits you and your

FCT busy with the 25th General Assembly The Federal Capital Territory Commission, FCT, is busy with its 25th General Assembly scheduled between 4th and 16th November. The 25th Assembly of the FCT Parliament which began November 3, 2017, ran through to November 11. The assembly this year was from Monday to Saturday. Speaking during a brief news conference, the Commissioner for Information, FCT, Mrs. Temitope Agunbiade, disclosed that the first meeting was held on November 3 and saw the appointment of a new Judicial Services Director, Asahe Adekunle and a new Non-Executive Director for Marketing, FCT, Tunde Bakare. Agunbiade said that the other non-officials serving the corporation included: Asu J. Gladstone, the FCT Whistle Blower Office; FCT Anti-Corruption Campaign Coordinator; Alhaji Kabiru Usman, Executive Secretary, FCT Secretariat and Public Relations Officer, Mr. Ismail O. Suleiman. At the last week's Assembly, his Excellency, Justice Adeniyi Oyedepo, CJN, made the summing up of the proceedings of the 26th Assembly and the Board approved and signed the important FCT Budget for 2018/19. In the 2018/19 Budget, there were some substantial amendments to the FCT Budget, prepared by the former capital letter, and a new body of Finance Commissioners were appointed. Agunbiade is optimistic that the 25th Assembly will be a test for lasting peace in the FCT. Umatilla, Fla., Jan. 6,

What's new in Off The Record: The Art Of Deception Collector's Edition:

is the exclusive alternate art version of the game. It was only made available for PC, but cannot be played on consoles. Being officially licensed by Bungie, this version comes with a special limited edition case and everything that comes with the Collector's Edition, including a special 40-page art book, soundtrack, soundtrack CD, downloadable content (DLC) for the companion app, Incursion Seeker Program guide, and more. For more details and to read up on in-game storylines, shoot FAQs, and more about The Art of Deception, check out the The Art of Deception Wikipedia. Contents Off The Record: The Art of Deception is the first game by Al Lowe's development studio Javelin Game Studios, which was mostly funded by Chris Metzen's now shut studio High Moon Studios. The game was released for Microsoft Windows in May 2009. On iOS it was released on December 17, 2009, for the App Store and on Android on March 3, 2010, for Google Play. Off The Record will not be released on any other consoles. The Art of Deception, like its predecessor The Labs: Forging Reality, took several years to develop. It follows in High Moon Studios's MicroProse Asherton Entertainment series and continues the story by the first game, but only from specific points. The change of story has brought up some arguments about the new mythological story that is told in Off The Record compared to Asherton Entertainment's original story, which fans have often criticised and have not taken them well. In 2009, Gabe Aul and Joseph Staten were hired to work on the game by High Moon Studios. The project was financially limited, so details were kept limited, with Javelin Games Studios holding the record on development and content until it closed down in November 2012. To make the game follow its sequel and its storyline, Javelin Games Studios added The Labs: Forging Reality's four expansion packs and completed the game with the help of third-party companies like Funcom and Frontier. The Art of Deception will be featured at Eurogamer Expo 2013 and PAX Prime 2013. Contents Story The Art of Deception picks up where the previous game, The Labs: Forging Reality, left off. In fact, fans of High Moon Studios' original franchise called it a day in the "Red Banner State", the name fans gave their ideal future society by the end of Forging Reality.
