[PDF] The contracting officer and one or more other persons constitute a joint venture if there is an agreement between the contracting officer and one or more other persons for the joint pursuit of a common aim and the success of the joint venture is in greater part due to the efforts of the one or more other persons than to the efforts of the other party to the joint venture. Provided, however, That in the event one or more of the parties to the joint venture suffers pecuniary loss as a result of the breach of contract by the other party to the joint venture, then such of the parties as so suffer shall have an election to discontinue the joint venture, and thereupon the liability of such party shall be determined in an amount not in excess of the financial loss or losses resulting to him. Such election to discontinue the joint venture shall be made by notifying the parties to the joint venture in writing, with notice to the other party or parties, not less than ninety days from the time of the breach of contract. If the notice of election to discontinue the joint venture is received by the other party to the joint venture within sixty days from the time the notice of election to discontinue the joint venture is filed in the office of the Secretary of State the election shall be irrevocable. Upon discontinuance of the joint venture the parties thereto shall be under an obligation to account to each other for the net assets of the joint venture. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties shall continue in the conduct of the business of the joint venture until the business of the joint venture is completed. Any money expended by any party to the joint venture pursuant to a contract entered into prior to the discontinuance shall be repaid to such party prior to the distribution of the assets of the joint venture. An election to discontinue the joint venture, as herein provided, may be made by any one of the parties to the joint venture. An election to discontinue the joint venture, as herein provided, shall be made by the party having control or any substantial interest in such party and not by the other party, and the law of the jurisdiction of the place at which the venture is to be carried on shall apply with respect thereto. The liability of a party to a joint venture for any wrong which he may do or cause to be done to a third person may not be discharged by the joint venturer unless the third person has agreed that it shall not be discharged, or unless the parties thereto, by their
