Plot Soul Reapers is a shorter metafictional novel in which a single unnamed protagonist travels through time, hoping to prevent the end of time and other disasters in the world. The plot of the book is interwoven with that of King Hobbitson; thereby allowing for several changes in the timeline, including the general future of the world and history. Current (a real-life magazine publisher) publishes the magazine Beginning Again (magazine). King Hobbitson falls in love with Grace, a character from the Beginning Again magazine. In the 17th Century, Richard Temporal finds a secret escape hatch, a Thoreauvian supernatural occurrence called the Eden flare.
