"We will not go that route," Nadal, who will play home favorite and fourth seed Juan Martin del Potro in the final, told a news conference. "We all know what happened... but that's the way it is, that's the way it is." Nadal and Ferrer both lost to Swiss qualifier and local favorite Stanislas Wawrinka, 7-5 7-5. "We'll play another match in two years and that's all we can do right now," Nadal, who won his 11th Madrid title last month and will be 36 in November, said. "We will not play that game. I think it's getting a little bit boring, because that's just what we do. I won't think about it. We just have to think about the final and the next one, and that's it. "I will stay in shape and try to be in the best position to be able to play him in November." Nadal said he was happy for Federer and Ferrer. "It makes me feel happy, of course, because Roger and David have been great for a long time and are still great, and I hope they will continue to be good people and that they will carry the rest of their life the way they are doing right now." After beating Wawrinka, who had won seven consecutive Madrid titles, Nadal said: "He's not the best player in the world, he's not the best clay-court 0cc13bf012
