I dont have a.jpg or.gif to upload either. If i put a.html in the asp page it works fine and the pdf will be in the folder. Here is my code. I tried with static.html and.exe files on the server and everywhere else but nothing works for me. I am a newbie and thanks a lot for any help. I have no idea what to do to get this working. A: Assuming that you have access to your FTP you can use "command line FTP" that allows you to upload files. For example: ftp -c "open ftp.example.com; cd Upload; put filename.pdf" -c is for "command line" If you want to save the file locally, then you can use "write" command: ftp -c "open ftp.example.com; cd Upload; put filename.pdf; bye" ftp.example.com is the host you want to upload files to. The directory Upload is a directory you will use to store your files. Filename.pdf is the file that you want to upload. Etc… You can use as many command as you want.
