My husband and I have a very thorough routine to ensuring he takes his medicine at the right time each morning. Since I work from home, I have started waking up at 4:30 AM, feeding, and taking my son to the bathroom. If he is not asleep by 4:45 AM, I go into his room and gently wake him. I then take him to the bathroom and leave him in there until he is awake. My problem is that when he wakes up (usually around 5:45 AM) he wants to go back to bed. He has done this three or four times now and we are really struggling with it. It makes me feel guilty, because we have a school starting just 10 minutes away and I should probably not be asleep. I know it's very rude and I will lose much of my sanity if I give in.
