“The restaurant itself is literally one big giant kitchen. When we first got there, it was everything you can imagine - dull, musky. But if I took you in. “Leonardo”, you would feel that in the very center of the restaurant there is a small hearth in which coals are burning - they are hot, but do not burn, and although the smoke rises to the ceiling, nothing is cooked in the hearth itself. Everything is there - from fish and meat to vegetables and fruits, from wine to tea, from desserts to sweets, from rice and pasta dishes to dough dishes. And all this in the center "Leonardo" is completely open to everyone. This is one of the most international restaurants in the world.
