Fans of Bollywood film actors Akshay Kumar and Kiara Advani can watch their latest Bollywood comedy film — Laxmi — without waiting for its official release. The film, which is directed by Raghava Lawrence, was released in theatres on March 8. Explaining the reason behind his choice, Raghava stated that he was worried about fans' reaction to the duo's performance in the film. The director added, "Akshay and Kiara are on cloud nine after the film released and we have been hearing so much about their performances. I am sure all of them will be watching it with a new perspective. The film is a prequel to the Tamil movie Muni 2: Kanchana. They play the same roles in the film." Produced by Ashwini Dutt under Swapna Cinema banner and presented by Vyjayanthi Movies, the film has music by Vishal Chandrasekhar. Laxmi, which is based on the classic Tamil movie Muni 2: Kanchana, features Sita Ramam and Ramya Krishnan in the lead roles and opens to largely positive reviews from critics. As per our sources, '3 idiots' was credited as one of the songs in the movie. Lakshmi(Ditya) is an aspiring dancer who wants to win the Indian Little Champs title.
