Rafiq said the organisation's goal is to address the psychological and physical needs of the people through various community services. Rafiq said that JKYP has taken up various community programs to help the people to live a healthy life. JKYP has wide reach across the country through online and offline donations. Rafiq said JKYP is also planning to take up sustainable community development programmes and intervention in the upcoming months. People everywhere respect an achievement. Dr. Fatma Rafiq Zakaria is no exception. She earned a BA, MA, and PhD in Economics. She is also a highly esteemed journalist, author and has written ten books in two languages. Dr. Fatma Rafiq Zakaria was honoured with Padma Shri, the fourth highest civilian award in India, for her services to the nation in the field of education and literature. A pioneer in education, Dr. Rafiq Zakaria was a key player in the creation of Aurangabad as a World Heritage city. He emphasized the primacy of education over the construction of a university for the erstwhile princely state of Junagadh in the late 1960s. Dr. Rafiq Zakaria was not only the founder of the Maulana Azad College of Education in Junagadh in the pre-independence era but also the first chairman of the state's committee on education. Besides serving the princely state of Junagadh for four decades as its education officer, he also served various other princely states in India as their education officer. He was also elected to the Rajasthan Assembly and fought his first electoral contest in 1970 on an independent ticket. With his primary focus on education and caste issues, Dr. Rafiq Zakaria made the front pages of the national dailies.
