Its Accent: South East England to British (BBC TV 2010) This is the ninth of a series of ten e-learning lessons teaching about English in Africa. Each lesson is from about 5 to 12 minutes in length and is composed of narrative interviews with six South Africans (four men and two women), giving authentic voice to South Africans' views on English and the English language in South Africa. The lessons are presented to learners by a native English teacher who notes that the lessons are intended to be used as part of the topic structures of a lesson plan: it is intended to be a useful supporting resource for English lessons, and not a standalone resource.
