The Minister for Environment and Energy, Josh Frydenberg, visited the Tiwi Islands last week and held talks with Federal Member for Cook Richard Torbay and the Tiwi Land Council. He has announced a $2 million grant to the Tiwi Land Council as part of an ongoing $30 million program. "The Federal Government's support for the Wet Tropics will help strengthen protection for our most vulnerable ecosystems and boost the livelihoods and wellbeing of Indigenous people," Mr Frydenberg said. "The Tiwi Land Council is an outstanding Indigenous organisation that is committed to conserving and sharing the land in the Wet Tropics." Mr Torbay welcomed the grant. "In the last year, the Tiwi Land Council has initiated a number of key projects and is also working with the Wet Tropics Management Authority on a strategy to deliver on the land-based carbon initiative," he said. "This new $2 million from the Government will help the Council to further its work to protect the natural resources and cultural heritage of the Wet Tropics."
